

BOOK IN A BAG

DIGITAL EDITION

THIS PACKET BELONGS TO:

Directions for Reading

1. Read the story
2. Talk about what you are reading.
 - a) Ask your child to point out things in the illustrations (ex: Show me the red balloon)
 - b) Ask your child to make predictions (ex: What do you think will happen next?)
 - c) Ask questions (it is better to ask who, what, where when, and why than yes/no)
 - d) Let your child make comments and ask questions too
3. Complete an extension activity and fill out the packet form to tell what activity was completed.
4. If you wish to share your work with Mrs. Voigt and classmates, you can post it to our Flipgrid board for our Book in a Bag program!

Extension Activities

Please check off the extension activity that you completed with your child! We will praise this at school to reinforce!

_____ Write and/or draw a picture about the story (use the back of this page or even use the Draw & Tell app on your iPad!)

_____ Cook something together that was mentioned in the book

_____ Do a search on the internet to gain more information and look at pictures together. Talk about what things look like, where they live, and what they like to eat or how your child feels about the subject.

_____ Substitute new words or subject matter in the story to make it funny, scary or silly.

_____ Together come up with a list of words that begin with the main character's name or think of rhyming words.

_____ Act out the story together, use your child's toys as props, get other family members involved. Use puppets to act out the story.

_____ Sing songs that pertain to the subject matter. For example if you read If You Give a Moose a Muffin, sing the Muffin Man.

_____ Complete a simple, creative art project. For example, after reading Rainbow Fish, cut out a fish pattern and have your child paint it and add his/her own sequins or cut up foil. Use it when you reread the story.

_____ Other (Please tell us about your activity!):
